

Norfolk and Suffolk Devolution Agreement

At the full council meeting on 29 June 2016, NNDC decided not to back the Norfolk and Suffolk Devolution Agreement. This was accepted at a Cabinet meeting immediately after the full council meeting. Consequently North Norfolk will not be part of the “devolution deal”.

Electoral Review of North Norfolk

The independent Local Government Boundary Commission for England is carrying out an electoral review of North Norfolk District Council.

The review will draw new council ward boundaries across North Norfolk.

The Commission has also announced that 40 councillors should be elected to the council in future: eight fewer than the current arrangements.

Now we are asking for evidence about your local area to help us decide a new pattern of wards for North Norfolk.

Your views will make a difference

Local people know their area best. That's why we are asking you for evidence on a range of issues:

- Do you have suggestions about where your ward boundaries should be?
- Which areas do you identify as your local community?
- Where do people in your area go to access local facilities such as shops and leisure activities?
